Vocabulary

Define the word and include etymology if useful.

Christian: A person who follows the Christian faith.

Ten Commandments: Set of 10 rules for life, found in the Old Testament, which Christians believe God wants them to follow.

Worship: act of religious devotion, usually towards a deity. May be performed individually, in a group, or with a leader.

Bible: The Christian holy book, which Christians believe contains God's teachings about all aspects of their lives.

Easter: Christian festival commemorating the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Christmas: Christian festival celebrating the birth of Jesus.

Resurrection: Christian belief that Jesus rose from the dead.

Disciples: Followers of Jesus.

That the Ten Commandments are a set of rules that God wants Christians to follow in their daily lives. They are found in the Bible in the Old Testament and are common to both the Christian and Jewish faiths. Christians believe that Jesus taught that the greatest Commandment is to love: to love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind and soul and to love your neighbour as yourself.

Christians worship for a number of reasons. These include: giving thanks, asking for forgiveness, asking for help for themselves or others, worshipping as a community, celebrating and to receive Holy Communion.

Christians believe that the Bible is the word of God. It contains God's teachings about all aspects of life and Christians use this to help them make decisions and live a Christian life. There may be conflicts between the teachings in the Bible and modern life, and it can be a challenge for Christians to reconcile the two.

Christmas celebrates the birth of Jesus, Easter remembers his death and celebrates his resurrection.

Reasons why Christians would say Jesus was an inspirational leader for his disciples- these might include: led by example, showed them how to from cycle of rebirth). The next life depends on actions in their past lives.

Seva means 'selfless service'- helping others without any reward/ personal gain. Shows the Sikh belief in equality.

The Sikh community is known as the Khalsa. The 5 Ks are worn by Sikhs who have joined the Khalsa and taken the Amrit Sanskar ceremony.
The five Ks are:
Kesh (uncut hair)
Kara (a steel bracelet)
Kanga (a wooden comb)
Kachera (cotton underwear)
Kirpan (steel sword)

Vaisakhi celebrates the founding of the Khalsa. On the 13th or 14th of April every year. Sikhs go to the Gurdwara in the morning and have a procession through the streets. In the evening, Sikhs have a meal with family and friends. At every Vaisakhi the Nishan Sahib (flag outside the gurdwara) is lowered, the pole washed in milk, and a new flag is raised.

The Happy Human is the international symbol of Humanism since 1965.
